

Returning to the Rhythms of God by Breathing In, Speaking Out, and Watching for the Wind April 9, 2016

EcoFaith Recovery invites you and your faith community to “Return to the Rhythms of God” through worship, retreats, and practice groups. This is the second of three retreats.

Bishop Dave Brauer-Rieke of the Oregon Synod – ELCA invites us into imagining the Breath of God moving into, out of, and all around our every thought and action. Breath gives life and creates a common exchange between all beings. Breath grounds us and gives us voice.

Our words create as we speak potential into possibility – and with an Easter focus we will wonder at the miracle of Jesus “breathing his last” and waking to breathe, and speak, again.

“By the word of the Lord the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.”
Ps 33:6 NRSV

Join us and invite others who may be interested!
RSVP and find out more at www.EcoFaithRecovery.org

When: Saturday, April 9th,
2016, 9:30 am to 4:00 pm
Where: St. Andrew Lutheran
Church – 12405 SW Butner Rd,
Beaverton, OR 97005
Costs: FREE & lunch included
RSVP by: Wednesday March
30th, 2016

Mark your calendars for the final Returning of the Rhythms of God retreat:
Saturday, September 17: Rev. Terry Moe and Rev. Robyn Hartwig, Pentecost season retreat focusing upon the waters of justice